

Valentine's Day: Dance to the music

February 14, 2011

The Niles Teen Center hosted a middle school Valentine's Day Dance at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday.

The dance was held in the upstairs gymnasium of the fitness center, at 978 Civic Center Drive. Admission was $5.

Youngsters were invited to bring their friends to dance to the latest music, provided by DJ Dennis and DJ Fred, and meet new people.

More than 200 teenagers were reported to have attended.

Photo Friendly

A Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids was held Saturday at the Niles Family Fitness Center. Jeremy Meger and Eric We mug for a picture taken by Lejla Vojnikovic. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media

A Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids was held at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday. More than 200 kids attended the dance. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media

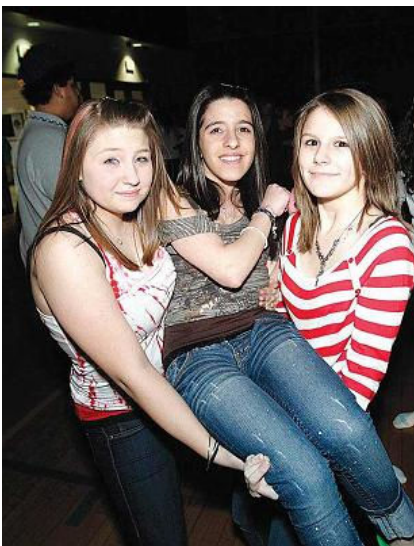

A Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids was held at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media

Sherlina Chauhan, Amanda Pusateri and Samantha Padillo, all of Niles, attend a Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids held at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media

Cristian Resendez scoots out of the pile of coats during a Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media.

Autumn Wheeler, Shrara Daood and Ana Goricki, all of Morton Grove, have fun at a Valentine's Day dance for middle school kids at the Niles Family Fitness Center on Saturday. | Joe Cyganowski~For Sun-Times Media