

Journal
6/25/08

Locked In

Sixty-three teens attended the first annual Night in the Mall, sponsored by the Niles Teen Center, on June 15. The group participated in numerous activities throughout the night which included everything from "teepeeing" each other (above) to writing on a "free expression" wall. Below, all 63 teens gather in front of their creation.

