

Youth Advisors Elected

A newly formed advisory board was elected in Niles on Thursday, Sept. 18.

Acting Mayor Bob Callero and the Niles Village Board welcomed new officers of the Niles Youth Council at the Tuesday, Sept. 23 meeting.

The council was created when 22 teens from the Niles Teen Center elected six officers to give direction and support for the center and provide advice about the decisions of the village government and how community groups relate to young people.

The council will meet on the first and third Thursday of each month.

Council President David Romo is a freshman at Maine East High School, Vice President Megan Mitchell is a seventh grader at Gemini Junior High School, Board Secretary Ryan Litwin is a sixth grader at Nelson School and Treasurer Randy Anderson is an eighth grader at Gemini Junior High School.

The council is sponsored by the Teen Center, which is run by the Village of Niles.
