Deputy Chief Joseph Romano - Receives Public Safety Leadership Award

Niles, IL – Deputy Chief Joseph Romano has received the prestigious Public Safety Executive Leadership Award from Northwestern University Center for Public Safety. The award was presented at the Center's School of Police Staff and Command 500th Graduation Ceremony at the Chicago Marriott Southwest Burr Ridge, December 10, 2021, in Burr Ridge, Illinois.

By successfully completing the Center's entire sequence of management programs (Supervision of Police Personnel, School of Police Staff and Command, and Executive Management Program), - Deputy Chief Romano has demonstrated a commitment to delivering the best, most professional service to his community. He was nominated by Chief Luis C. Tigera of the Niles Police Department.

The Northwestern University Center for Public Safety was established in 1936 to expand the scope of university-level education in traffic safety. Since that time, the Center has broadened its offerings to include police operations and management. Law enforcement agencies have also come to depend on the Center for university-level research programs, technical assistance and conferences on crucial and timely issues. Northwestern University Center for Public Safety has taught nearly a quarter of a million professionals in law enforcement in related fields from all fifty states and thirty-eight foreign countries.
