Niles Police Department Welcomes New Officer

Niles, IL - On May 6, 2016 during a special session of the Niles Fire and Police Commission a new member of the Niles Police Department was sworn in. Probationary Police Officer Jonathon Mahay was sworn in by Fire & Police Commissioner Barry Mueller in the Village of Niles Council Chambers.

Officer Mahay will start his Basic Police Academy at the Chicago Police Academy on May 9th. Officer Mahay will participate in a rigorous 16 week training program, from May 9th through August 26th. Officer Mahay will then go through a 14 week Field Training Program upon graduation. Once he completes the Field Training Program he will be assigned to a patrol shift and begin working a patrol assignment.
