NPD Case #2016-30149

Retail Theft Suspect Charged

Niles, IL – On November 18, 2016 at 10:05 p.m. the Chicago Police Department took an offender into custody for an armed robbery of a Jewel store in the 2900 block of north Ashland Avenue, Chicago Police Department case #HZ521130. On November 19, 2016, Niles Police Investigators were notified that the suspect in the Chicago Police case possibly matched the description of the suspect from the Niles Police retail theft which occurred on 11/14/2016.

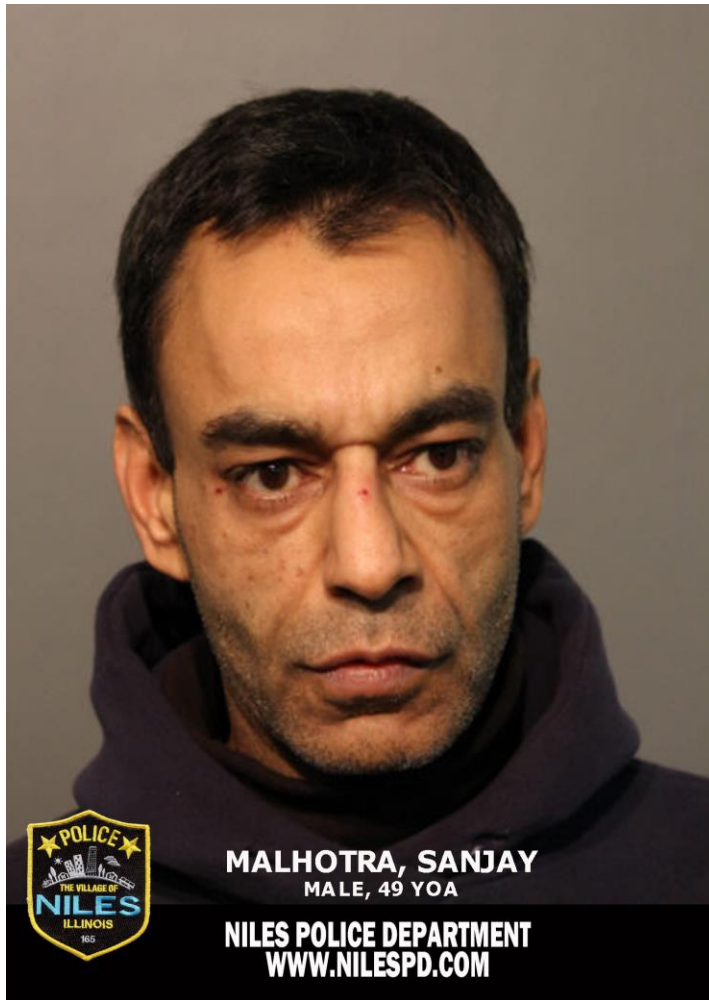

Niles Police Investigators interviewed the suspect who was in custody for the Chicago armed robbery, in regards to his possible involvement in the retail theft in Niles. During the interview Investigators were able to link the Offender to the retail theft at the CVS store located in the 9600 blk of Milwaukee Avenue.

The Cook County States Attorney's Office was contacted and approved charges for Armed Robbery, 720 ILCS 5/18-2, which is a Class X Felony. A preliminary court date has not been set at this time.
