Emergency Readiness Exercise

Niles, IL – The Niles Police Department and Niles Fire Department are conducting an “Emergency Readiness Exercise” at Notre Dame High School at 7655 W. Dempster, Niles, Illinois at 6:00 p.m. The joint exercise has been designed to integrate police and fire department personnel into an emergency situation to improve response time, interagency coordination and communication.

The exercise is expected to last approximately 40 minutes and will not impact the community around Notre Dame High School.

If any organization would like more information regarding this exercise, please contact Commander Robert Tornabene at 847-588-6505.
