NPD Case #: 2019-41450

Armed Robbery

Niles, IL – On December 2, 2019 at about 3:50 a.m. three males entered the Shell gas station at 6901 n. Milwaukee Avenue. All three males were dressed in all black clothing and wearing ski masks. One of the males pointed a handgun at the clerk who was standing behind the counter. The three males came around the counter ordering the clerk to open the register and get on the ground. Two of the offenders took an unknown amount of cigarette cartons and lottery tickets. Two of the offenders then left the store and the third stayed behind. Shortly after the two offenders left the store, a male customer entered the gas station; the third offender pulled out a handgun and ordered him to the ground. The male customer went to the ground and searched him. The offender took the male customers cellphone and the cash from the register. The third male then left the store. The offenders fled in a dark sedan south bound on Milwaukee Avenue from the station. Taken was approximately $300 in cash, a box of cigarettes valued at $2,700 and an iPhone.

This investigation is open and active; if anyone has information regarding this incident please contact the Niles Police Department Detective Bureau at 847-588-6570.
